

Kera Allen

PhD Student School of History and Sociology
Georgia Institute of Technology
1166 Cumberland Rd. NE
Atlanta, GA 30306
kera.allen@gatech.edu

EDUCATION

- Exp. 2019 Georgia Institute of Technology, History and Sociology, Ph.D.
2016 Georgia Institute of Technology, History, Technology, and Society, M.S.
2005 Georgia Institute of Technology, Science, Technology, and Culture, B.S.

CONFERENCES AND PRESENTATIONS

- 2017 Conference Assistant at Command Lines Software, Power and Performance March 18-19
2017 " 'Still Some Nagging Parts': An Intersectional Study of the Computing and IT Workforce".
Atlanta, GA: Ivan Allen College, Georgia Institute of Technology, January
2016 "What does a father know about the need of playgrounds and recreation centers": Lugenia
Burns Hope and the Development of the Neighborhood Union North American Society for Sports History (NASSH), May
2016 " 'In a World Full of Men, You Just Have to Stand out and Speak Your Mind' An Intersectional
Study of the Computing and IT Workforce." Rock Hill, SC: Southeastern Women's Studies
Association (SEWSA), March
2016 " 'I Was Supposed to Make Things Pretty' A Study of Workplace Culture for Women in Computing and Information Technology." Atlanta, GA: Ivan Allen College, Georgia Institute of Technology, January

FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

- 2015-2016 Nanostructured Materials for Energy Storage and Conversion (NESAC) IGERT Fellow ($60,000)
2017 Michael S. Mahoney Travel Award ($400.00)
2017 Graduate Paper Competition, Career, Research, Innovation, and Development Conference,
Georgia Institute of Technology ($1500)
2016 South East Women's Studies Association Student Travel Grant ($100)
2014-2015 President's Fellowship, Georgia Institute of Technology ($3000)

MEMBERSHIPS

- Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE)
IEEE Society on Social Implications of Technology
IEEE Women in Engineering
Women in Technology (WIT)
SIGCIS